

E-P-A RULES of MEMBERSHIP

1) General information about membership

- Membership is free of charge
- All applications for membership will be approved by the E-P-A Bureau, once approved members will be sent a confirmation e-mail of membership
- Members shall conduct themselves in a professional manner and not act in any way as to bring the association into disrepute
- The E-P-A Bureau reserves the right to withdraw membership
- A member may resign their membership sending an email to the E-P-A membership manager
- As a member your details will not be passed on to commercial companies. The only exception to this is with regard to conferences organized in association with the European Pathway Association or conferences that the E-P-A supports

2) Individual and associated members

- Members can be individual or associated members
- Membership is open to: a) employees of health and social care organizations with an interest in care pathways b) individuals who are employed in providing care pathways services (see commercial members below)
- E-P-A will not be influenced by industry and other commercial interests. Applications for membership from commercial organizations will be considered on an individual basis → please contact our secretary Ruben van Zelm
- Commercial members will not have access to databases of information regarding E-P-A members

3) National Sections

- Members are grouped in national sections
- Every national section has a chairman & co-chairman
- The chairman (or co-chairman) is member of the E-P-A council
- A National Section is accredited by the E-P-A Bureau if:
 - The section has at least 20 individual members
 - 1 activity per year is organized for members
 - Members elected a chairman & co-chairman
 - A yearly report of the activities is sent to the E-P-A secretary